Kindergarten

Editor's Note: This is the third of a series of pictorial pages on Salt Lake City and Utah schools.

Because of the tendency of five-year-old children to be concerned about self, kindergarten teachers begin early to stress the importance of cooperation. Individualism, of course, is not stifled, but controlled, as they learn to play with each other, share each other's equipment and cooperate in group activities.

For most kindergartners, this is the first cooperative venture they have ever had and they are taught at the beginning to respect the rights of others, to be courteous and considerate, and, above all, be polite.

They learn to work with new tools, and this picture page is devoted entirely to activities of kindergarten classes in Salt Lake City schools. Each child has certain responsibilities which he must perform perfectly before other members of his class can proceed with the day's activities. Thus, in the first year of organized class-work, these youngsters learn to do two important tasks—accept responsibility and cooperate with other persons.

In the library corner of the Garfield school kindergarten, are their interest in picture books is great. Note the orange crate furnished themselves. Similar scenes may be found daily throughout the classes.

 A BLESSING given by George W. Simons Patriarch, upon the head of

WRITE NAME IN FULL
John Gilbert Wood Sr. and Blanche Pauline Greenhalgh
FATHER'S NAME IN FULL MOTHER'S MAIDEN NAME
 born 4 November 1935 at Salt Lake City Salt Lake Utah
DATE CITY COUNTY STATE

Brother Howard Edwin Wood, in the name of Jesus Christ and by virtue of the Holy Melchizedek Priesthood, as the Patriarch of the Torrance Stake, I lay my hands upon your head to give unto you your Patriarchal blessing, a blessing that will be a guide and a help to you the rest of your days here upon this earth, a blessing that will enhance and strengthen your faith and testimony here upon this earth.

And as this is a Patriarchal blessing, Brother Wood, I give unto you an understanding of your lineage, for you are a descendant of Joseph, who was sold into Egypt, through the loins of Ephraim. This permits you to hold the Priesthood of your Heavenly Father here upon this earth.

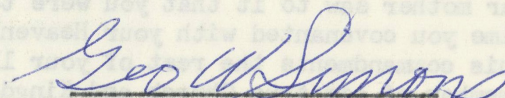

Now, Brother Wood, you have been born of goodly parents. At the time of your youth, your mother saw to it that you were taken into the waters of baptism where at that time you covenanted with your Heavenly Father that you would do his will and keep his commandments the rest of your life here upon this earth, you were confirmed a member of his true Church and Kingdom, and the Holy Ghost was given to you as your constant companion. Now, Brother Wood, your Heavenly Father is desirous that you humble yourself before him, that you offer your prayers night and morning before him, that you have your family prayers, and that you attend to your meetings-- your Priesthood meeting, your Sacrament meetings, and the other meetings that have been prepared for those of God's children upon the earth wherein they can partake of the spirit of the gospel, where they can study the lessons and can learn more concerning their life's mission here upon this earth.

Now, your Heavenly Father loves you and he desires to see you fulfill honorably the measure of your creation. He has blessed you with a wife who loves you and one whom you love. He has given you one of the greatest blessings, that of fatherhood. He has placed within your care spirits of his within their mortal bodies and he is expecting that you will see that those children are taught the principles of the gospel, that you yourself will live the gospel, that you will set an example unto your children, and that you will do his will and keep his commandments and so live that you will be a missionary among those with whom you associate, that you will at no time be ashamed to say that you are a member of his true Church upon the earth. Now, Brother Wood, since you have become activated in the Church, you have gone through the Aaronic Priesthood and you have had the highest office, that of a Priest, conferred upon you. If you will listen to the counsel of the Bishop, if you will keep the commandments of our Heavenly Father, if you will fill the assignments that are given to you by the Bishop, the time will come when you will be prepared to receive the Melchizedek Priesthood and will be ordained unto the office of an Elder. When you receive that calling and that Priesthood, you will receive the same power and the same authority that the Savior conferred upon his apostles in the days when he was here upon this earth, for by the power of the Melchizedek Priesthood, the Church and Kingdom of God was spread. It gives unto you the power and the authority of officiating in the ordinances of the Priesthood and of the Church. And if you will live, when this Priesthood is conferred upon you, you also will be able to take your wife and your children into the temple where your earthly marriage can be sealed by the Holy Spirit of Promise into a Heavenly marriage and your children can be sealed unto you so that they will be yours throughout the eternities to come where at the present time they are only 'until death do you part'.

Now, Brother Wood, if you and your wife will counsel together, if you will talk over problems--your financial problems, your temporal problems, the problems of the Church--if you will talk over the problems that come before you, it will bring you and your wife closer together, there will be greater love and greater happiness and greater companionship between you, and you will understand, by the power and spirit of our Heavenly Father, how to give unto your children the instructions of the gospel. If you will hold the home evening regularly in teaching your children the principles, your children will grow up to adulthood and they will be instruments in the hands of our Heavenly Father in the furtherance of his work here upon this earth. You, yourself, will be called to positions of responsibility. You will be given the opportunity of working in the organizations of the Church for the advancement of the youth of Zion and others. So, Brother Wood, listen to the counsel of the Bishop and give heed unto it. Give heed also unto the counsel of those who are placed over you in the Priesthood quorums and the other organizations of the Church. If you will do this, you will have the spirit of our Heavenly Father to be with you, your faith and your testimony will be strengthened, and happiness will be your lot the rest of your days here upon this earth and also in the eternities.

There are a great many other blessings that your Heavenly Father has that he will shower upon you, they will be made known unto you, and all the blessings will bring joy and happiness into your life. Now if you will keep the covenants you made with your Heavenly Father in the past, if you will do his will and keep his commandments, keep the covenants you will yet make with him in the future, all these blessings and promises will be given unto you and you will fulfill your mission in honor upon the earth. I seal these blessings upon you, sealing you up to come forth in the morning of the first resurrection where you will enjoy glory, honor, immortality, and eternal life. I seal these blessings upon you by the power of the Priesthood and in the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.

AIRMAN PERFORMANCE REPORT

DIRECTIONS FOR COMPLETING AIRMAN RATINGS

The Airman Performance Reports are to be completed only by immediate supervisors to evaluate the job performance of their airmen personnel. The ratings will be more accurate if made over relatively short periods of time. Rating should not cover less than sixty (60) days nor more than twelve (12) months.

If you are rating more than one man, fill out section IIIA on each airman to be rated, before looking at section IIIB. When each of your airmen has been rated in IIIA, go on to section IIIB and rate each airman in this section. Follow this procedure in filling out each section. Mark the unknown box only when you have insufficient knowledge of a rating factor.

As you know from your own experience, men differ a great deal in their ability to do a job. Some few men do an outstanding job which is easily recognized; on the other extreme there are the unsatisfactory workers who are also few in number.

Consider the most outstanding airman you have as being at the right end of a yardstick and the most unsatisfactory airman at the left end. Between these extremes you will find different degrees of ability. It has been found in rating 24 airmen that usually one airman will be considered "Outstanding." About three airmen will be found who are "Excellent." Eight airmen will be rated "Very Good," eight more only "Good," three airmen "Fair," and only one airman "Unsatisfactory." This distribution is shown on the reverse side of form.

DIRECTIONS FOR USING RATINGS

The ratings of any airman should be evaluated only in terms of other airmen working in the same AFS since it has been found that significant differences occur when people in different specialities are rated.

A final check should be made with the information in section II when evaluating an airman's ratings. If the rater indicates he has supervised the airman only two months, or seldom sees his work, the rating scale is of less value than if longer periods of supervision or more frequent observations are indicated.

Rating scales should be used in conjunction with scores on the appropriate Airman Proficiency Test as well as other factors which might be available such as disciplinary records, commendations, length of service, and other administrative records. No one measure is completely foolproof or absolutely valid. Local conditions and good judgment should dictate the method used for evaluating airmen in each case.

Hi Shue

How are you? Fine I hope. What do you think of this card. I thought you'd get a laugh out of it. Wasn't it remind you exactly of me. So so. Well enough of that huh. What have you been doing? Have they been keeping you real busy? I was sure glad to hear you had a nice time at your uncle & aunts. I guess you can go see them quite often now then so close huh!

What ^{was} do you mean about calling me? You said Sat-urday the 18th in your letter but Sunday's the 18th. So be sure to write and let me know which day for sure. Ok.

Do you started work huh. Well how do you like your job? What do you do?

Well there's really not much space left so I guess I'll have to close for now. Be good & don't forget to call.

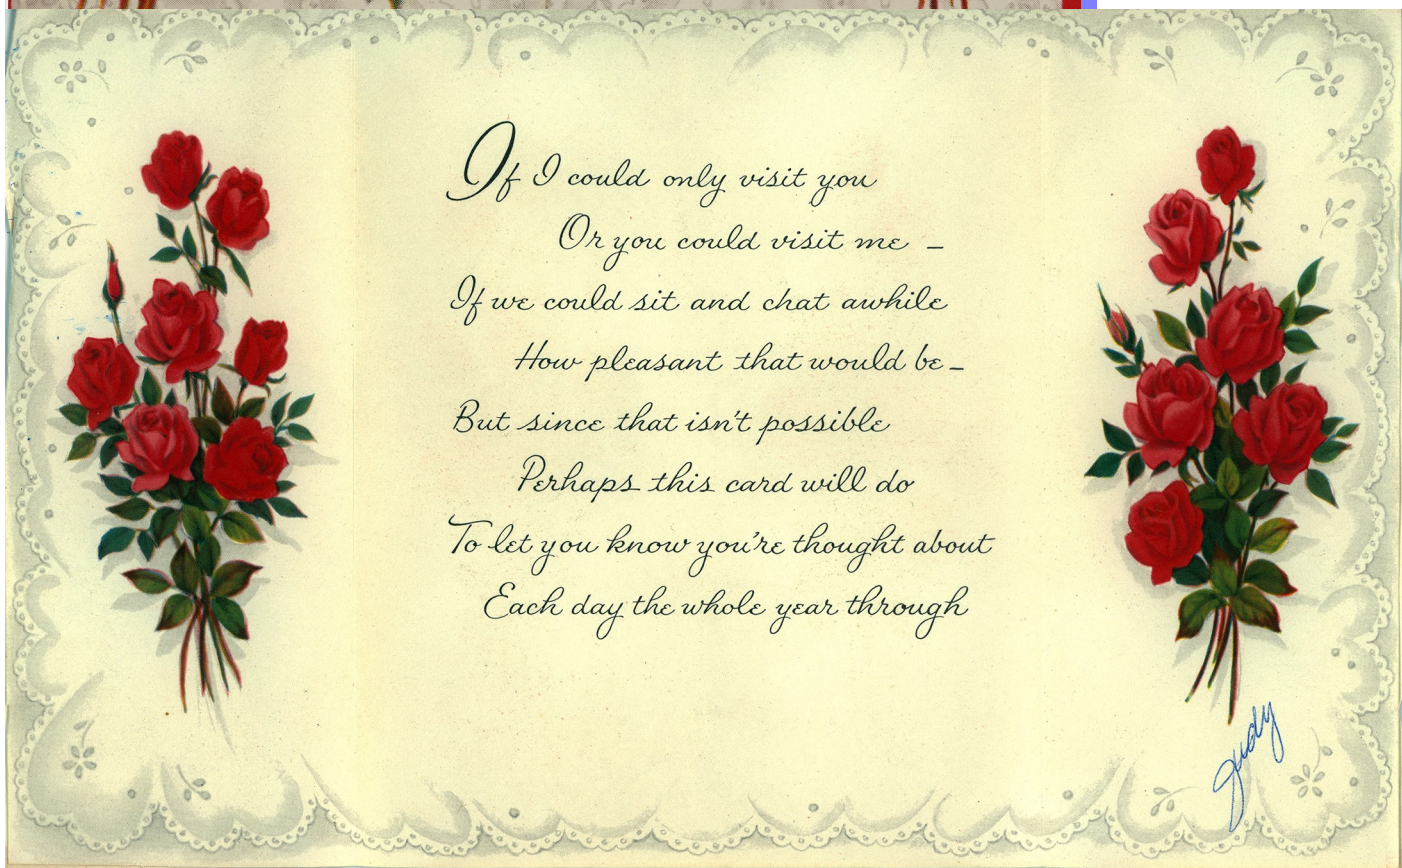

Love Always
Judy

$13,479.34 Tax Refunds Await Utahns

U.S. Treasury checks ranging from $1 to $566—a total of $13,479.34—are waiting for Utahns who have not received their 1958 income tax refunds.

The checks could not be returned to about 300 Utahns because of incorrect address, change of address or other illegible information and they are being held in Room 366, Federal Building, 350 S. Main.

District Internal Revenue Service Director Roland V. Wise advised men and women whose names appear on the list:

"It is not necessary for you to consult or engage the services of a 'locating' or 'searching' service or anyone else to obtain information with respect to your check," he said.

"All you need do is contact the district director of IRS in whose office your return is filed and establish your identity and right to receive the check.
